Gun Shop Revenge:

You have just pulled into the parking lot at the local gun range for an IDPA shoot. A local gang has decided they need some more firepower and made a big mistake in assuming that the gun range would be a good place to get it. You are talking with your shooting buddy and do not notice the group until two of the halfwits approach the car and demand at gun point that you hand over your shooting bags. Instead you show them the business end of your carry gun and open fire. As the first two go down some of the gang scatter but four hang around and draw their own weapons. You address them as needed to put an end to the threat.
